Dear Sir,

I filed the claim and sent out all documents on Oct 19, 2010. (Pls see attached receipt)
The Post Office said it takes only 10 days to deliver from HKG to USA. I sent out on Oct 19 2010 showing my 100% intention of sending out the claim in time. Only at this moment, I was told that my claim was received one day later and dis-allow my claim.

The fact is : I bought the product. I had presented all required information supporting my claim. The legal status is no doubt. Like most of the people, I bought the Lehman brothers product and suffered the loss. Under no circumstances should such postal delay deny my right of the claim.

I write to protect my interests through your complicated legal procedures. I fight to get back my own money, nothing more. I earnestly request your kind consideration not to disallow my claim. I use my money , I bought the Lehman Brother's product.
This is the fact that I am entitled to the claim.

I would like to request that I would not appear at the hearing as I have to station in the Mainland China .

Yours faithfully,
